

I would describe Point Breeze to someone who doesn't know anything about it as a great company to work for. This is the first place that I've ever worked that I don't feel like I'm a number so I'm an actual person working at Point Breeze is a lot of fun.

If I could describe Point Breeze's culture and one word I would say family. We're always here for each other we take care of each other I've never really felt like I've been a part of a family more than working here.

My favorite part about working at Point Breeze is that I truly can make a Difference. What makes Point Breeze unique is that we care about the members some of them even know us by names already and we know them by names. It's always great helping the member.

My favorite part about Point Breeze is the people that I work with, my coworkers are awesome we all get along really well everybody enjoys their job everybody enjoys coming here every day.

I'm proud to say that I work for Point Breeze because we are a company that values the employees very much and we also value the community I am privileged and grateful to work here at Point Breeze I really feel a sense of belonging

I ended up working at Point Breeze
